The Region Sports Network is looking for a freelance video editor to help expand our programming offerings as well as edit game film for highlights. Potential candidates will have a working knowledge of Adobe Premiere or comparable video editing software, as well as a creative mind for story telling via video.

For more information, please email nathan.laird@regionsports.com